

Name: _____

Think about it.

Would you like to explore territory that has never been explored? Why or why not?

_____
_____
_____

Read each sentence. Then decide in which sentences the word territory makes sense.

The _____ is on that shelf.

The state we live in was once Mexican _____ .

Did you _____ your homework yesterday?

My dog thinks our backyard is his _____ .

Lewis and Clark explored the Northwest _____ .

1

territory

To many people, polar lands are unfamiliar territory.

2

accompany

Explorers going into a cave should find others to accompany them.

Think about it.

Do you like to have someone accompany you to school in the mornings? To the doctors office? Why or why not?

---

---

---

Write about the person, people, or animals you would like to accompany you to each of the places listed below.

To the store

To the movies

To a friend's house

To the playground

3

proposed

Some scientists have proposed, or suggested, further exploration of Mars.

Think about it.

What was the last great idea you proposed to your friends? How did they respond?

---

---

---

---

Read each phrase. Draw a line to the beginning of each sentence with the best ending.

The nervous young man
proposed

that everyone should stay on the trail.

My friends proposed that the homework be due Monday.

The hiker proposed marriage to the young woman

Our teacher proposed that we play basketball

4

interpreter

An interpreter, or translator, is helpful when people use different languages.

Think about it.

Would you want to be an interpreter for your parents if they spoke a language different from your teacher's language? Why or why not?

---

---

---

In which of the following situations would an interpreter be most useful?

Does it make sense?
Why or why not.

You need someone to help you lift a heavy object.

You need someone to explain what the actors in a French movie are saying.

You need someone to fix your computer.

5

duty

Divers have a duty.
They are required not to harm a marine area
or its creatures.

Think about it.

What is your main duty at home? Do you do it well?

---

---

---

---

Draw a line to match each of these professions to a duty that person performs.

Profession	Duty
nurse	keeping travelers safe
veterinarian	giving medications to children
lawyer	cleaning and organizing a building
custodian	arguing a case before a judge
flight attendant	giving injections to animals

6

supplies

Hikers need to carry supplies, such as food and water.

Think about it.

What supplies do you need for school each day?

---

---

---

Think about some of the supplies you might need for each of these activities. Fill in the chart below.

Activity	What supplies do you need?
Painting a mural
Playing soccer
Making a kite
Making a sandwich

7

route

Backpackers should choose a safe route and stick to that path.

Think about it.

Is there more than one route from your classroom to the playground at your school? Describe the most direct route.

---

---

---

Draw a simple map showing the best route from your home to school.

corps

On a research trip, every member of the corps, or team, must have valuable skills.

Think about it.

Would you like to be part of a corps that works to improve your school? What problems would the corps work on?

---

---

---

---

Make a web below. Fill it in with examples of work projects that would be good for a corps to do.

9

clumsy

A clumsy, or awkward, mistake can mean the loss of months of research.

Think about it.

How could being tired make someone clumsy?

---

---

---

---

Circle the words that describe what a clumsy person might do.

- fall down
- Dance gracefully
- Drop things
- Break things
- Play quarterback well
- Win an ice skating competition
- Walk into things
- Trip over something

landmark

Noting a landmark or other recognizable object makes the return trip easier.

Think about it.

What is one landmark in your community?
Why is it a landmark?

---

---

---

---

Why would you visit the following landmarks?

Landmark	Why would you visit it?
Grand Canyon, Arizona
Statue of Liberty, New York
Mt. Rushmore
Yellowstone National Park	