

Name: _____

The Earth Dragon Awakes

By Laurence Yep

Question	Page Number	Answer
Why doesn't Ah Sing seem worried when he and Chin first feel the earthquake?	350
What does Ah Sing mean when he says, "The Earth Dragon must be scratching"?	350
Why does Ah Sing push Chin under the table?	351
Why do you think the author switches from the events happening in Ah Sing's tenement to the scene in the street?	352
Why does the author include an explanation about the liquefying soil and landfill?	352
How do the illustrations on pages 352-353 connect to Chin's and Ah Sing's predicament?	352-353

Question	Page Number	Answer
How does the author create feelings of both hope and despair in his description of Chin and Ah Sing's situation?	354
Why does the cry of "Fire!" pose more problems for Chin and Ah Sing?	354
What does the word scrabble mean in the last paragraph on page 355? How do you know?	355
What brings Chin to the brink of panic?	356
Why does the feeling of a breeze cause Chin to have a renewed burst of energy?	357
What can you tell about Ah Quon? What is the text evidence?	358
From what point of view is the story told? How can you tell?	358	