

Name: _____

Ecology for Kids

Question	Page Number	Answer
The author uses the word house several times at the beginning of this text. What house is he talking about? How does this relate to the topic of ecology?	442
What is an ecologist?	442
What is the balance that the boy and the ecologist talk about?	443
What is an ecosystem? What details explain what it is?	444
What are the author's feelings about what is happening to tropical forests?	445
Why is it important to know that the ocean covers four-fifths of the Earth's surface?	446

Question

Page
Number

Answer

What does the author say about fishing and ecology? What reasons and evidence does he use to support his ideas?

444

What evidence does the author provide to support the idea that the sea is an important resource?

447

According to the author, what are the benefits of the sun? What are the dangers of the sun?

446

What message is the author trying to send about the sun on this page? What reasons and evidence does he use to support his message?

448

How is the author's message about the sun similar to his message about forests and oceans?

448

What are the main things people can do to protect the environment?

450