

Name: _____

Harvesting Hope: The Story of Cesar Chavez

Question	Page Number	Answer
Does the author convince you that the Chavez family has no choice but to move to California? What evidence does she provide in the text?	563
Why do you think the author begins this biography by describing in the introduction Cesar's life before the drought? Which details from before and after the drought help to show this contrast?	563
Cesar feels that his new life is like a form of slavery. What evidence in the text explains why he feels this way?	564
Why do the migrant workers feel powerless?	565
Why do you think so few migrant workers agree with Cesar at first? Explain your answer, using evidence from the text.	566
What is the main idea of the first paragraph on page 567? Explain how you know.	567

Question

Page
Number

Answer

What is Cesar's strategy, or plan, for helping the farmworkers? In your explanation, define what a strike is.

567

Why do you think the marchers plan to walk all the way to the state capitol of California?

568

What is the main idea of the second paragraph on page 569? Explain how you know.

569

How are the marchers treated at the beginning of the march? How are they treated at the end?

569

When Cesar hears that the grape company officials want to meet with him, why does he think it must be a prank? Explain your answer, using text evidence and your own experience.

571

What is a contract? Use clues in the first and last paragraph on page 571. Why is it so exciting for the farmworkers to have their first contract?

571