

Name: _____

My Brother Martin

by Christine King Farris

| Question   | Page Number | Answer |
|--|-------------|--------|
| Based on what the author says, how would you describe Martin Luther King Jr.'s childhood?What details so far in the selection lead you to believe this?                  | 50          |        |
| Based on what the author says on this page, do you think the King children were close to one another? (Yes or no)What details in the selection lead you to believe this? | 50          |        |
| So far, how is the author presenting information?(Text Structure)  | 50          |        |
| What does waning mean in the second paragraph on page 52? How do you know?  | 52          |        |
| What details does the author include to support the idea that Martin Luther King Jr. was like most kids in many ways?  | 52          |        |
| Up to now, the feeling of the narrative is happy. How is it changing?  | 53          |        |
| What evidence does the author give to support the statement that segregation laws were unfair?   | 54          |        |

| Question  | Page Number | Answer |
|---|-------------|--------|
| Who do you think decided that M. L. and A.D. could no longer play with the boys whose parents owned the store? What is the text evidence? | 55          |        |
| Why did the adults shield the children from the "cruelty and injustice" around them?  | 56          |        |
| What evidence does the author give to show that there was cruelty and injustice around black people?                                      | 56          |        |
| According to M. L.'s Mother, why did people make laws like these?   | 57          |        |
| What does the author mean when she says that after the children lost their playmates, their father's sermons had new meaning?             | 58          |        |
| The author says that M. L.'s father "practiced what he preached." What evidence does the author include to support this statement?        | 58          |        |
| What is the author referring to when she says, "...when he was much older, my brother M. L. dreamed a dream..."                           | 60          |        |
| What is the significance of the illustration on student book page 61?   | 61          |        |