

Name: _____

Stormalong by Mary Pope Osborne

Question	Page Number	Answer
What is a fathom ? What context clues help you figure out what a fathom is?	140
In what ways is Stormy like a real baby? How is the baby unusual?	140
From what you have learned so far, why is Alfred Bulltop Stormalong a good name for the baby?	140
How does the illustration support or add to the text?	141
Why does Stormy feel like an outcast?	142
What is Stormy's quest? What does he say that gives you a clue to where he will feel comfortable?	142
What do you think the expression blow me down means? Why?	143

Question	Page Number	Answer
Why does the author use words and phrases such as aye and month O' Sundays in the dialogue between the sailors and Stormy? What does a month O' Sundays mean?	145
What caused the sailors aboard The Lady of the Sea to change their view of Stormy?	145
Has Stormy succeeded in his quest to find somewhere where he feels comfortable? What is the text evidence?	145
Why does Stormy feel that the sea betrayed him?	146
Why does Stormy say that he's not going to stop walking until someone asks him what the thing on his shoulder is?	147
How might you summarize Stormy's problem in this story?	147
Why does Stormy move so many times?	148

Question	Page Number	Answer
How do the sailors feel about Stormy's return? What is the text evidence?	148
What does Stormy learn on his return to Boston?	148
What causes salt water to course through Stormy's veins again?	148
What does the story of soaping the ship explain? How does this story remind you of other traditional tales you have read?	151
Has Stormy been successful in finding a home for himself? If so, why is he still sad?	151
What do the funeral and the song sailors sing tell you about Stormy? What details support your conclusion?	153
Did your predictions about what Stormy would do in his life turn out to be true?	153
Many traditional stories follow a pattern of events as the main character searches for something. Is "Stormalong" one of these traditional tales? Why?	153	