

Name: _____

Think about it.

What have you found to be so glorious that it made you stop and stare? If not, what might be so glorious you would do that?

_____

_____

_____

_____

Read the descriptions below. Think about what each might look, sound, or feel like. Complete the chart.

	Look	Sound	Feel
It was a glorious summer day.
The view of the mountains was glorious.
A glorious sound came from the choir.

1

71A

glorious

Fine arts, such as collage and painting, are stunning, glorious forms of expression.

2

72A

studio

A studio is an artist's workshop. Painters paint and potters make pots there.

Think about it.

If you were an artist in a studio, what would you create?

---

---

---

Think about what it would be like to have your own studio. Use a chart like the one below to help you decide what you would work on in your studio.

		Studio

3

73A

model

As they design a building, architects may create a small, model version.

Think about it.

How is a model train like a real train?

How is it different?

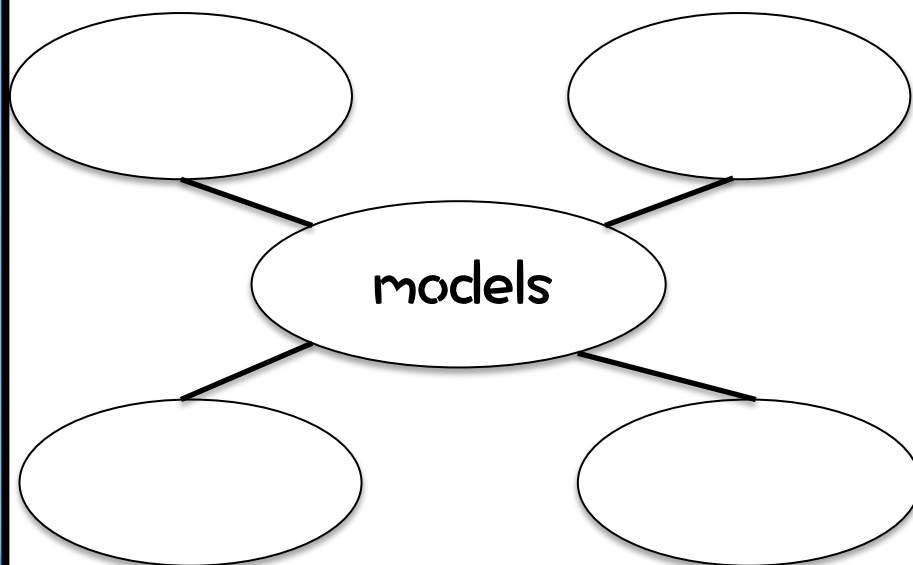

---

---

---

---

Think about different model items you have seen. Fill in the chart below.

Think about it.

Have you ever been concerned about the possibility of making a mistake? How did you handle those feelings?

---

---

---

---

---

Think about times when you were concerned about something, but everything worked out fine in the end. Complete the chart below.

My concern	How it worked out
I was concerned that I lost my book report.	I found the report in my book bag.

4

74A

concerned

This photographer is concerned, or worried, that the penguin will move.

5

75A

smear

Paint may be lightly dabbed or thickly smeared onto a surface.

Think about it.

Think about the last time you smeared paint onto paper. Did you enjoy painting that way?

---

---

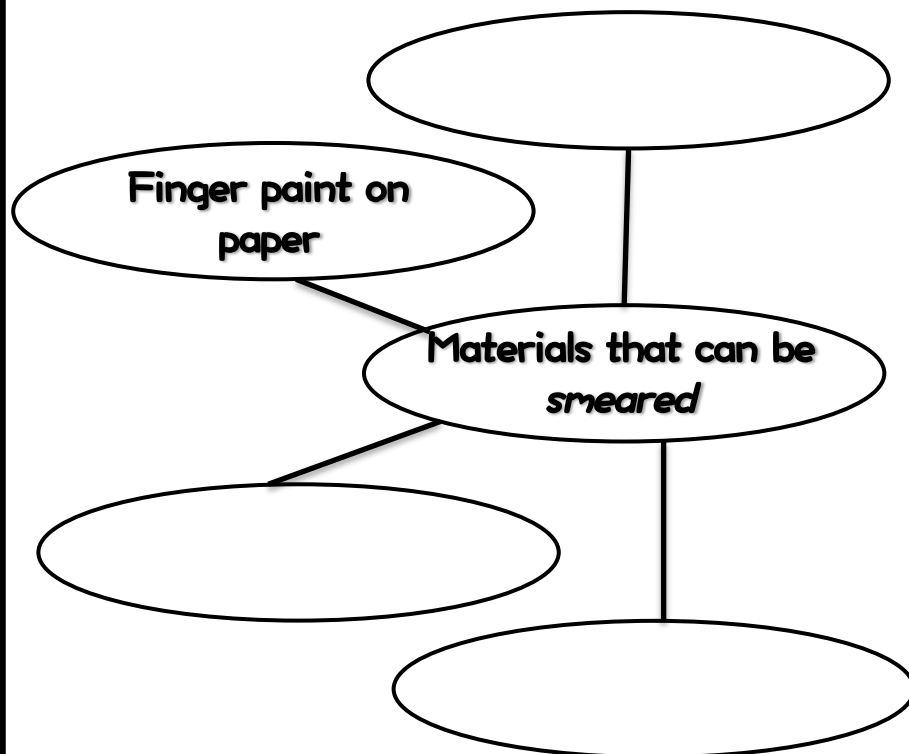

---

---

Think about materials that can be smeared on a surface. Complete the chart below.

Think about it.

When it seems like a day has been ruined, what's one way to make yourself feel better?

---

---

---

---

---

Recall a time when something of your own became ruined by something you did. What lesson did you learn from that experience? Complete the chart below.

Ruined

Lesson

I tore my paper while I was erasing.

Do not push so hard on the eraser.

6

76A

ruined

This handmade pot was perfect at first, but then it collapsed and became ruined.

7

77A

yanked

This girl must have accidentally yanked, or pulled, the base from the vase.

Think about it.

If you yanked too hard on a doorknob, what might happen?

---

---

---

---

---

Look at the words below. Decide which words mean the same as yanked. (synonym) pulled pushed fought tugged

punched yanked
jerked destroyed
reached shoved

8

78A

streak

In this lively artwork, some colors seem to streak across the painting.

Think about it.

Why might it be fun to watch a racecar streak around the track?

---

---

---

---

Read the sentences listed below. Then decide which words can be replaced with the word streak. Rewrite the sentence.

Original sentence

Rewrite the sentence

We saw two mountain lions rush up the face of a cliff.

The raven can fly quickly across the sky in search of food.

I watched the runners race around the track.

feast

A photographer took a picture of this delicious feast full of food.

Think about it.

Why are many special days celebrated with a feast?

---

---

---

---

What would be in the feast of your dreams. Would it be all sweets? Or would the feast include a variety of delicious foods? Complete the chart below.

The Feast of My Dreams

Food	Drinks