

#:

Lesson 13 Day 1

Correct the sentence:

In Antarctica, Jennifer Dewey tried a whales food and studied the penguins nests.

Use them in a sentence:

display

alert

Add commas where needed to the text below

Please bring a towel sunblock a swimsuit and a hat.

Circle the synonym for the following word: bold

afraid brave meek hero

reviewed

prefix: _____

base or root: _____

suffix: _____

Lesson 13 Day 2

Correct the sentence:

With her experience, Ruth is be an esplorer some day.

Use them in a sentence:

weariness

fractured

Circle the matching analogy:

tiny : small

- a) funny : happy
- b) old : new
- c) huge : big
- d) nice : good

Simile or Metaphor?

Underline what is being compared:

With the school year starting I will be a busy little bee.

Circle the antonym for the following word:

luxurious

expensive shabby smelly costly

Lesson 13 Day 3

Correct the sentence:

I can like to read more books about Antartica in the future.

Use them in a sentence:

standards

vision

Circle the correct relative pronoun:

who which whose whom that

The careless driver _____ was busy texting ran a red light.

Circle the prepositions, cross out any prepositional phrases.

I heard a sound from outside.

Circle the correct word.

I'm going to _____ down for a few minutes and rest. (lay / lie)

Lesson 13 Day 4

Correct the sentence:

Next year I visit the last great fronteer.

Use them in a sentence:

huddle

graceful

Circle the misspelled word and write it correctly on the line:

house minite used _____

Circle the definition that matches the word used in the sentence below.

Erin was very creative and was always coming up with novel ideas that no one else ever did.

nov-el

1. n. A long story about people and events that are imagined by the author.
2. adj. New and different.

Lesson 13 Day 5

Correct the sentence:

The scientists must take a plane to the South Pole they can go by boat.

Use them in a sentence:

stranded

concluded

Gail always admired her older brother. He was the best student in school and all of the teachers loved him. She was in awe by how athletic he was, to; he played soccer, baseball, and basketball. But most importantly, Gail was most impressed by how kind he was to others.

admired means:

Name: _____

Lesson 13 Day 1

Lesson 13 Day 2

Lesson 13 Day 3

Lesson 13 Day 4

Lesson 13 Day 5

Menu Activity #: _____

Menu Activity #: _____

Menu Activity #: _____

Menu Activity #: _____

Menu Activity #: _____

List (circle):
yellow
green
blue